2.4. Payment for shares

2.4.1. Monetary or non-monetary contributions may be made for the shares. The procedure for payment for shares shall be established with the resolution of the general meeting.

2.4.2. The value of non-monetary contributions shall be ascertained with the resolution of the Management Board of the Group and subject to the assessment of the Group's auditor who shall prepare for the Management Board a written opinion on the compliance of the value of the non-monetary contribution with the requirements provided by law. Where acknowledged experts are available for assessment of the value of the item, the value of the non-monetary contribution shall be assessed by these experts.

2.5. Convertible bonds

The Group shall have the right to issue convertible bonds.

3. GENERAL MEETING OF THE SHAREHOLDERS

3.1. Competence of the general meeting

The general meeting is the Group's highest management body, where shareholders can exercise their rights. The General Meeting shall be competent to:

- 3.1.1. amend the Articles of Association;
- 3.1.2. increase and reduce the share capital;
- 3.1.3. decide on the issue of convertible bonds;
- 3.1.4. appoint and extend the authorisation of members of the Supervisory Board;
- 3.1.5. prematurely remove members of the Supervisory Board;
- 3.1.6. approve the Annual Report and allocate the profit;
- 3.1.7. establish the number of auditors, appoint and remove auditor(s);
- 3.1.8. designate a special audit;
- 3.1.9. decide on the conclusion of transactions which are beyond the scope of everyday economic activities with members of the Supervisory Board, establish the terms and conditions for such transactions, decide on legal disputes and appointment of the Group's representative in such a transaction or dispute;
- 3.1.10. decide on the dissolution, merger, division or transformation of the Group;
- 3.1.11. decide on other issues within the competence of the general meeting as provided by law, and on issues presented to the general meeting by the Management Board or Supervisory Board.

3.2. Calling of a general meeting

- 3.2.1. The general meeting shall be called by the Management Board, unless otherwise provided by law, and shall be held at the place and time specified in the notice calling the general meeting.
- 3.2.2. The annual general meeting, with the approval of the Annual Report on the agenda, shall be held at least 1 (once) a year. The Management Board shall call the annual general meeting within 6 (six) months after the end of the financial year at the latest. An advance notice of a minimum of 3 (three) weeks shall be given of the annual general meeting.
- 3.2.3. The Management Board shall call the special general meeting on the basis of and pursuant to the procedure provided by law, giving an advance notice of at least 3 (three) months.

3.3. Procedure of the general meeting of shareholders and procedure for adoption of resolutions

- 3.3.1. Each share shall grant 1 (one) vote at the general meeting.
- 3.3.2. The list of shareholders entitled to participate in the general meeting shall be established based on the share register 7 (seven) days before the general meeting.
- 3.3.3. The shareholder in person or a representative of the shareholder, the availability of whose right of representation shall be certified by a written document, may participate in a general meeting, unless otherwise provided by law.
- 3.3.4. The general meeting shall have a quorum if shareholders holding over a half of the votes represented by shares participate at the meeting. If shareholders holding over a half of the votes represented by shares do not participate at the general meeting, the Management Board shall call a new general meeting with the same agenda within 3

(three) weeks, but not before 7 (seven) days. The new general meeting shall have a quorum, regardless of the votes present.

- 3.3.5. A resolution of the general meeting shall be adopted if over a half of the votes present at the meeting vote in favour, unless a bigger majority of votes is required by law or these Articles of Association. In issues specified in clauses 3.1.1 – 3.1.3, 3.1.5 and 3.1.10 of the Articles of Association, the resolution of the general meeting shall be adopted, if at least 2/3 (two-thirds) of the votes represented at the general meeting vote in favour, unless a bigger majority of votes is required by law.

3.4. Shareholders' electronic participation in the general meeting

- 3.4.1. Shareholders may participate in the general meeting and exercise their rights using electronic means without physically attending the general meeting and without appointing a representative, if it is possible in a technically secure manner.
- 3.4.2. Shareholders may vote, by using electronic means, on the draft resolutions prepared on the agenda items of the general meeting prior to the general meeting or during the general meeting, if it is possible in a technically secure manner.
- 3.4.3. A shareholder who has casted a vote by using electronic means is considered a participant in the general meeting, with the shareholder's votes represented by shares calculated in the quorum of the general meeting, unless otherwise provided by law. Where votes are cast at the general meeting only with respect to resolutions that have not been published before the general meeting and where the shareholder has not cast any votes with respect to such resolutions, the shareholder shall not be considered as a participant in the general meeting.
- 3.4.4. The specific procedure for electronic voting shall be determined by the Management Board, shall ensure a secure and reliable identification of and electronic voting by the shareholders, and shall be proportional with regard to the attainment of the objectives.
- 3.4.5. Electronic votes shall be cast in a format which can be reproduced in writing.
- 3.4.6. Electronic participation shall not be allowed at a general meeting, if resolution measures or rights are applied to the Group under the Financial Crisis Prevention and Resolution Act.
